

SUPERINTENDENT'S WEEKLY UPDATE

Friday, March 31, 2017

Lapwai School District Attendance Drawing Grand Prize Winner!

Congratulations Natalia Bisbee
Mrs. Sliger's Kindergarten Class

Natalia had perfect attendance and no tardies the entire contest period from January 9th through March 29th!

Natalia had several prize options ranging in value from $200 to $260 and chose an Xbox One.

Other students qualifying for the drawing included:

Nathen Ellenwood, KG
Kenneth Murphy, KG
Kambrin McCulley, 1st Grade
Keira Bybee, 5th Grade
Thearose Larson, 5th Grade
Hadley McCulley, 5th Grade
Damion Paisano, 1st Grade
Jaice Penney, 7th Grade

We are proud of you!

Thank You Lewis Clark Credit Union

Mrs. Latella wrote and was awarded a LCCU grant for her kindergarten class.

Her students will be writing and illustrating animal alphabet books. Each student will get a copy to keep.

Congratulations Mrs. Latella. Thank you for engaging these young learners in such a creative project.

Native Culture and Language Team

Thank you Alicia Wheeler and Joyce McFarland for joining the superintendent in reengaging district staff in action planning with Native culture and language.

I would like to thank the following staff for their participation in our first meeting on Tuesday, March 28th:

Teeiah Arthur
Bonita Brown
Nancy Dahl
Deaneal McKnight
Ena Sanchez Raml
Andy Rosch

Qe'ciyew'yew'

Steelhead in the Classroom: 5th Grade Science

Our 5th grade classrooms are partnering with mentors from Idaho Fish and Game in the Steelhead in the Classroom Project. Both classes are equipped with large aquariums. 5th graders are learning about their life cycle, participating in testing the water, feeding, and making daily observations in both Mrs. Baldwin and Mrs. Finnell's classrooms.

One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest

A Lapwai High School Drama Production

Directed by Sheila Scott - March 2017

THANK YOU
MRS. SCOTT!

Attendance Wildcat Scholars

Village Centre Cinemas Gift Card Winners!

Elementary Weekly Winners

Last Week:

Sistina Lozon, 1st Grade

Mrs. Arthur's Class

This Week:

Garyn Moffit, 4th Grade

Mr. Woodford's Class

Middle-High Weekly Winners

Last Week:

Justine Slim John, 10th Grade

This Week:

Styels Peters, 12th Grade