Dr. Arthur Taylor Jr. Culturally-Responsive Teacher of the Year

Georgia Sobotta

Nominated by Lori Ravet

Georgia Sobotta was honored by Nez Perce STEP as the Dr. Arthur Taylor Jr. Culturally-Responsive Teacher of the Year.

Congratulations Georgia and thank you for your big heart for Lapwai students!

We would like to thank Joyce McFarland and Alicia Wheeler for joining us to honor this deserving teacher! Qe'ciyew'yew'

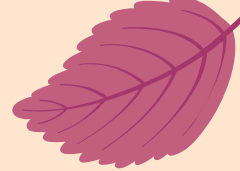

Qe'ciyew'yew' Optum Idaho and D&B Supply!

Approximately 240 rain and snow boots with socks were distributed last week to preschool through 5th grade Lapwai Elementary students. The event was sponsored by Optum Idaho with boots from D&B Supply. Thank you to our caring volunteers from Community Health who joined us to support the distribution!

The background of the entire image is decorated with various autumn leaves. At the top, there is a dense border of large, vibrant orange and yellow maple leaves. Scattered throughout the white background are several smaller, individual leaves, some of which are stylized with white outlines, giving them a sticker-like appearance. The leaves are in various shades of orange, yellow, and some hints of red, representing the colors of fall.

Happy Thanksgiving
