

Student Spotlight

Manuel Covers Up III

Manuel has been a persevering student all year. Manuel is eager to learn new things and works very hard in classes. He is taking higher courses such as Junior and Senior math and Anatomy. Right now he is also taking French, and French can be a pretty hard language to learn! Manuel is one of the most diligent students in his class, and kudos to him for keeping up the great work.

New Year, New TEACHER!

Introduction to our new Career & Readiness Counselor: Samuel Maynes

Samuel D. Maynes, current Enrollment Specialist at the Lewiston-Clarkston State College joined the Lapwai High School Staff this upcoming semester as our new Career and Readiness Counselor. Mr. Maynes is operating out of Room 217, previously used for the Paw Store and will be available for any student who has questions about moving to a higher stage of learning. Whether it be questions about scholarships, professors, classrooms, or more, Maynes will have you covered.

The Wildcat Way!

Coming back from the New Year, we hope to start it off by being the WILDCAT WAY! We would like to encourage students to remember to be respectful, responsible, and safe. With doing these things it not only shows your pride in your school, but pride in yourself. Look after one another, and continue to push each other to "Reach your full potential." Being a Wildcat is being the outstanding student that we all are! Along with it being the New Year, we would like everyone to excel in achieving your academic goals, or anything else that you put your mind to. Once a wildcat always a wildcat!

From One Job to the Next- Shawnee Stacy

We interviewed Shawnee Stacy about her new job as being a College Career and Readiness Secretary! What made her want to become a College Career and Readiness Secretary was because it's in her field, and things she's interested in, she also wants to go to grad school to do so. Shawnee's role as being a secretary is a lot of things! Not only is it just supporting the new College Career and Readiness teacher, but setting up students' files throughout the school, grades 6th through 12th, organizing, and among other things. We asked Shawnee what she may miss about being the librarian, and she responded, "I'll miss being able to see students as often as I used to." Lastly she is definitely looking forward to her new job, and is super excited to get going! Thank you Shawnee Stacy!

Lapwai BPA

Last week on the 19th, BPA students went to LCSC to be judged on their projects. The Parley and Broadcast Production teams advanced to the next level! Amil, Hattie, Kalela, Emmitt, Tui, Justin, and Keith were on the Parley team. And your very own Wildcat Call crew were on the Broadcasting team (Chloe, Pox, Heewekse, and Bobby). For a total of four hours spent at LCSC all participants did their best to impress judges and earn their way forward. Thank you to everyone who participated in BPA, that your hard work goes noticed. Both the teams have pledged to perform even better at State in March, and we in particular hope to go all the way to Nationals! Go Wildcats!
